Description of fiscal impact

SB 379, as amended, allows for state agencies that do not have a designated tribal liaison to consult with the Governor's Director of Indian Affairs, contingent on available resources, if any such agency opts in to develop consultation policy. An agency may also choose to designate a tribal liaison, subject to available resources. As amended, there is no fiscal impact to the state.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

1. As amended by the House State Administration committee, the bill is permissive rather than mandatory.
2. As time and appropriations are available the Governor's Director of Indian Affairs, will assist state agencies who do not already have a designated tribal liaison.
3. There is no fiscal impact to the state.
